SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 14, 1-47.

AN OLD MAN WINS A YOUNG BRIDE

Mr. John Baver, aged sixty-five years, living at Mt. Savage, Md., had quite an experience in matrimony on Thursday. Mr. Beaverhad been a wi dower for several years. Recently he concluded to advertise for a wife through a county paper. His advertisement was answered by a young gill by the name of Margaret Lambert, who lived at Parson, W. Va , on the West Virginia Central and Pittsburg Rail road. A meeting of the couple was ar ranged for Thursday evening in Cum berland, Md., so the young womacame down from the mountains and was met at the train for the first time ly her intended aged husband.

She did not back out when she me the old gentlemean, but the couple went the parsonage of President Elec-Wheeler, on South Mechanic street an were united in marriage. At ten o'cock the bride and groom went to the Cun berland and Pennsylvania Railread train for Mt. Savage, where the old gen tiemen had left his children and grand children, before his departure to get a new wife, thinking it would be an agreeable surprise to his children to bring a stepmother to them.

Instead of receiving the blessings from his children and grandchildren, on going to his home, it was quite dif ferent, for the old gentleman and his bride were refused admittance by the Beaver and his bride then went to the Varnum Hotel, where they engaged a room for the night. A row cultimated the romance at an early hour yesterday morning, and the unbappy bride of only a few hours reto Cumberland on an early morning train, and left yesterday after-noon for her home in West Virginia. Beaver followed her to Cumberland on the next train, but while he was searching Cumberland for her, she was on her way to her home.

A Remarcable Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea.

In 1862, when I served my country asa private in Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle; and now 1 can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy, and recommend it to all suf fering veteraus. If in doubt write me Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Allentown, Pa. For sale by J.
